

I am very much in favor of the APCO petition. This would make the process of frequency licensing much smoother and allow better use of the spectrum for public safety.